Please note: All spaces are reserved on a first-come, first-serve basis. Payment must be made in full at the time of the reservation. If someone appears with a permit, all parties must vacate the premises. Persons holding the permit may contact the Police department if any issues arise. If a picnic space is not reserved, members of the public can use that space at no charge. No charcoal grills or open flames, gas grills only. Parties and groups are responsible for the pickup and removal of all trash before the end of the reservation. No alcohol is allowed on Park property. Rentals for gatherings of over fifty people are required to fill out a special event application form, which must be approved by the Superintendent and/or the Park Board.
